NACA COMMENCES ITS BALTIMORE LENDING CAMPAIGN

The Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of America ("NACA") will be kicking off its Baltimore Office with hundreds of Baltimore residents on Saturday May 18th at 2:00 p.m. at Harlem Square Park.

NACA provides unprecedented mortgage products and comprehensive housing services. "We intend to revolutionize the Baltimore mortgage market," says Reverend Graylan Ellis-Hagler, a Baltimore native and NACA Development Director "NationsBank has gone where no other bank in Baltimore has gone with no down payment, no closing costs, and liberal underwriting. Now we have to hold Signet and First National Bank of Maryland to the same standard."

On Saturday May 18th at 2:00 p.m. at the Harlem Square Park (corner of Gilmore Street and Edmondson Ave.) the hundreds of people attending the kickoff will be taking the first step towards home ownership. They will also be part of the long-term advocacy campaign against lenders that refuse to respect the needs and home ownership demands of working people.
